

EXTRA WALL ST. STOCK REPORTS.
Bear: Make a Successful Raid on the Leading Shares.
Sugar Refineries Certificates Weak and Feverish.
The Bank Statement the Most Favorable that Could Be Desired.

HE bears were on top again this morning, as they have been on pretty much every day for a fortnight. They raided all the leading shares and quietly covered their shorts while the decline was in progress.

Sugar Refineries were weak and feverish on the revision of the sugar schedule. The remarkable apathy prevailing in speculative circles was demonstrated in a striking manner by the bank statement. This was more favorable than had been hoped for by the most optimistic.

SLAVIN'S VICTORY
Apparently It Was Won on McCalliffe's Over-Confidence.
The American Had All the Best of the Opening.
Slavin Bowed in the First Round by Joe's Attacks.

Slavin opened with his left, straight on the mark. In a brief rally, McCalliffe got the best of the business, and the betting slipped over to 5 to 4 on the American.

Slavin tried left and right, but McCalliffe dodged out of harm's way. Joe next reached Slavin's mouth with a left-hand stagger, and Slavin looked nonplussed.

The men flinched and dodged in the centre of the ring, both apparently eager for business. Slavin was then in ecstasies and loudly cheered him, while the Australian's friends began to look gloomy.

ZOUAVE DURYEE DEAD
The Gallant Soldier and Patriot's Career Ended This Morning.
Succumbed to Paralysis at His Home on Lenox Avenue.

Gen. Abram Duryee, the Colonel and organizer of the famous Duryee Zouaves, died at 4 o'clock this morning at his home, 81 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, corner of Lenox Avenue, of paralysis.

He was seventy-six years of age. He was Colonel of the famous Seventh Regiment forty years ago. When the late war broke out he organized and took into action the Duryee Zouaves and served brilliantly at the great battles of Cedar Mountain, Rappahannock Station, Thoroughfare Gap, Antietam, Chantilly and South Mountain.

He was made Brigadier General for his gallant services, and in February last Congress increased his pension to $100 a month. Since the war he served as Police Commissioner in this city.

In May 1867, he was stricken with paralysis, and since then he had been confined to his house, able only to use one hand and foot.

A second stroke of paralysis two months ago further disabled him. He felt the end coming last night, apparently, for he bade farewell to several friends who called on him. He did not rest well during the night, and his devoted wife saw at daylight this morning that the end was near.

It came at 9.41 A. M., while she had her arms about him and his daughter sat weeping by his bedside.

PLAYERS' LEAGUE GROUND, PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—It rained all last night, and in consequence both Recreation and Exposition Parks were today in better condition for aquatic contests than ball games.

FOR THE AMATEUR HONORS.
New Jersey and Detroit A. C. Teams Strive To-Day.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
POLO GROUND, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Just as the ground sounded this afternoon for the New Jersey Athletic Club and Detroit Athletic Club nines to start the first game of the series set at 4 o'clock yesterday evening, there were two questions to consider:

The previous shower had moistened the grounds, but had failed to dampen the spirits of the players, for they took their places as sprightly as so many colts, despite the sodden condition of the field.

There were some five hundred enthusiastic rovers present, most of them partisans of the boys from Jersey.

The game commenced at 3.35. The following is the batting order:

Team	Players
New Jersey	Carr, c.; Charny, 3d b.; Corrie, c.; Smith, 1st b.; Westervelt, c.f.; Melrose, r.f.; Lisle, l.f.; W. M. Currie, 2d b.; Foster, l.f.

EXTRA RACING. LOS ANGELES
Wins the Second Brooklyn Jockey Club Special Stakes.
Chesapeake's Sea Breeze

Favorites Well to the Front and the Talent in High Clover.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 27.—This was another poor day for racing, yet the regulars were present in full force and were reinforced by a delegation of the Saturday visitors.

The track was deep in mud, which caused the usual amount of scratching. Tander was made such a favorite for the first race that he was barred in half the books. He was ridden by Garrison and won handily.

The talent again made the rogue. Reporter, the favorite, and this time he didn't fall them, but landed the second race easily. Chesapeake and Kemland were about the only two that were backed to any extent for the Sea Breeze Stakes. The former won in a canter.

Kon, Prince Royal and Los Angeles were the only ones to face the starters for the second race.

Kon was the favorite, but Los Angeles beat him two lengths, while Prince Royal was a distant third.
